Rev. Leon Matthews, Senior Pastor

Coronavirus Emergency Response Statement from Rev. Matthews

March 13, 2020

Based on the direction and guidance from Bishop Sue Hauptert-Johnson, we will “practice social distancing” from each other and the community to keep all persons safe and well. The church will remain closed until further notice.

Likewise, as we continue to support the ministry endeavors of the church, please feel free to use the online giving opportunity for your tithes and offerings at <http://www.warrenmemorial.org>. Moreover, you can mail your gifts to the church mailing address:

Warren Memorial United Methodist Church
181 Joseph E. Lowery Blvd., S.W.
Atlanta, Georgia 30314

We will schedule Zoom meetings with some committees for further direction and planning as we prepare to reopen the church for office hours, activities, meetings, Bible Studies, Church School and worship opportunities. Further information will be forthcoming as to any future schedule changes to worship services or other activities as circumstances warrant.

While we are practicing social distancing, please feel free to practice the following Spiritual Discipline for Spiritual Growth and Awareness Opportunities:

- Continue to read the 40 Days with Wesley for our Church-wide Lenten Study
- The North Georgia Annual Conference’s Reading Schedule for the Year is available at www.ngumc.org/files/tables/content/13133640/files/
- Read the Lectionary Readings for each Sunday for worship and Sunday School
- Read your Church School Lessons for the Sunday’s we are not meeting.
- The Annual Conference has provided a list of live-streaming or recording worship services at www.ngumc.org.
- Please call, email or Zoom each other, particularly our seniors, and offer prayers to remain calm and be at peace.

Lastly, please feel free to call the Pastor with pertinent needs and concerns at (678)427-2024.
